Pastor's Pen

Pastor's Pen

A new year is beginning, and a new experience is starting for all of us. My twelve-week Pastoral Renewal leave is beginning, and this will be something none of us have experienced before as a church family. As with all new things, there is a certain amount of excitement and a degree of uncertainty.

I feel a great sense of possibility for what this leave can mean for me as a pastor. I am eager for the opportunity to restore and nourish my soul. I pray for fresh inspiration in my preaching and teaching, a new clarity of God's vision for our church, and new vitality in my service. There will be new opportunities to be involved in the worship and ministry of the church. You will have options for a new understanding of what it means to be a community of faith together.

The element of uncertainty during this time comes from our expectations of it. It will be easy to expect more than can be done at this time. I know that I hope for a lot during this renewal leave for myself. I am anticipating accomplishing significant changes in myself personally and professionally. What if I am expecting too much of myself? What if the revitalization I want to experience for God is not what I expect? We have developed an excellent plan for the church during this time, but what if things do not go as planned? We are hoping to see benefits from this time, yet we may not know the benefits for us all for some time after.

It is essential to remember a few things with so many possibilities and questions. It is okay to look forward to this time of opportunity to experience different things, and it is okay to feel uncertain about it at the same time. It is also good to have high expectations of one another, but we should also be realistic with ourselves. Most importantly, we must trust in God through it all.

I, therefore, invite you to pray with me during these 12 weeks. Pray for all the possibilities before us. Pray that we will experience God's full blessing in them. Pray for God's Spirit to fill us and lift us to the full potential of this time. Pray that we trust in God's presence and grace in our uncertainty. Pray that we trust in the plans God has for our church in the future. Finally, pray that we will be equipped for all the opportunities and challenges ahead of us through this time of renewal.

This will be a time that we will be apart, but we will journey through this time together. I also want you to know that you are always in my prayers during my renewal leave. I am honored to be your pastor. Your generosity also humbles me in making this opportunity possible.

Blessings.

Worship Themes for January

The Light of Home - Pastor Mark Gilbert

January 2, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

Scripture: Jeremiah 31:7-13 and John 1:1-9

Jesus, the light of the world is shining on us. Last week we heard that Jesus has made his home with us forever and ever. Jesus is not only at home with us, but he also never lets the lights go out.

Wade in the Water - Pat Nolet

January 9, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

Scripture: Isaiah 43:1-7 and Acts 8:14-17

Gracious promise of divine help: good will comes to beleaguered people. Peter and John were so encouraged by good news, they are telling others to go on to perfection by the laying of hands.

Spiritual Gifts: Strength Through Diversity - Emerson Coy

January 16, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 12:1-11 and John 2:1-11

Scripture testifies that the Lord delights in the Lord's people. Therefore, through Jesus' ministry and the Holy Spirit, God distributes gifts to believers. God's love for us is shown in the work that we do and in the gifts that we use. But not just in the doing itself, we see God's love in the way service builds relationships and then those relationships create community. We then find strength in our diversity as the body of Christ and spread the gospel of good news with joy in our hearts.

Spiritual Gifts: The Mission of the Triune God - Holly Nash

January 23, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

Scripture: Luke 4:14-21

Have you ever wondered, "What does God want me to do?" Jesus had the same question. Throughout His life, He continually prayed to get the answer. God the Father and The Holy Spirit and Jesus all had a role in bringing the Good News to earth. God always had a plan to send His son, Jesus, as a small baby into the world to save the world. From his conception on, the Holy Spirit was present in Jesus' life and helped Him discern what He was to do to fulfill the mission on which sent God sent Him. We too, can look to the Holy Spirit for guidance to complete God's mission for us.

The Word of the Lord - Pat Nolet

January 30, 2022 - 10:00 a.m.

Scripture: Jeremiah 1:4-10 and Luke 3:21-30

A Word of God to master, to get to the end of it, on any given day: read, listen twice, repeat to yourself; relate to what God is telling you; reflect on the connection you made; pray - ask God to empower you; rest quietly in God's presence.

Lay Leader, Nonagenarian Birthday

Words to Live By Emerson Coy, Lay Leader "Visions and Values"

We give thanks for another New Year. On the last Sunday of November 2021, we began a new religious Christian year with the onset of Advent. We prepared ourselves again for the coming of Christ. It was with hope and faith of those who prophesied that a King would be coming. On Christmas we celebrated by candle light that hope that is realized today. Prophets had a vision but Jesus came in a very humble setting. In 2022 we hear of the one calling in the wilderness, John the Baptist, who said he was not worthy to untie Christ's sandals. In January we celebrate the light in a season called Epiphany as when the Magi followed the direction of the star of wonder, star of light which led them to the Christ babe laid in a manger.

We have a lot to look forward to in this new year. We are optimist and hope it is better than last year. Deep in our hearts we agree with Lucy in the Peanuts cartoons when she says, "I don't want ups and downs, I want ups and ups and ups!" We are more realistic than that. Still, we hope for more ups than downs. Many of us make New Year's resolutions dealing with self-improvements. I know I used to try some of them like dieting, more exercise, read more, get more organized. The list is sometimes overwhelming. I hope you are more successful with your resolutions. Regardless, we look forward to a feeling of newness and freshness, a chance to start over.

When we begin anew, it is important to know where you want to end up. What is your vision for yourself, our community in the Northwoods and the United Methodist Church of the Pines. It you went away for 15 years and came back what would you like to see? Your answer becomes the making of your vision, your hopes and dreams. It is important to have a vision for ourselves too. We ask God for wisdom and strength for our journey. We dream about the future and take smaller steps towards our dreams. Our tools are the values we use along the way. They are invisible and intangible such as love, enthusiasm, commitment, and determination. Values and our visions go hand in hand.

Perhaps this year we find a vision for our lives instead of a resolution that often sets us up to fail. Visions start from the inside. Values are the bases on the way to home plate. There is an old Eskimo blessing that goes like this: "May you have warmth in your igloo, oil in your lamp, and peace in your heart." Find your vision and live it. Have a great New Year.

HAPPY 90th BIRTHDAY to Fred Melms

Blessings to Fred on his special day!

Christmas Meals and Christmas Shoeboxes

Christmas Community Outreach

Church of the Pines was able to make Christmas a little brighter for school children and their families by providing gift certificates for food from Trig's. We wanted to do something to help children and families who are going through difficult times. There were 56 people who donated a total of $6,790 to purchase the gift certificates. THANK YOU!

Christmas Shoeboxes for Children Around the World

This was the third year that Church of the Pines participated in the Samaritan's Purse Christmas Shoebox program. Twenty shoeboxes were packed by members of our congregation and others built 30 Christmas Shoeboxes online for a total of 50 Christmas Shoeboxes that were sent around the world to children in need. For many of the children, these Christmas Shoeboxes are the only gift they will receive.

To all who participated in the Christmas Shoebox Project, we say a BIG THANK YOU for your support!
